WE ARE HUMANS

Name: _____

Unit 1 Reach higher

Class: _____

1. Complete the text with words from the box. There are two extra words.

cells	bacteria	function	multicellular	organ	organ system
respiratory	tissue	unicellular	organism

Cells are the basic building blocks of all living things. We can classify living things as (a) ……, being formed of one unique cell, or (b) ……, being formed of numerous cells. The cells of human beings, for example, have many different functions. A number of cells that perform the same function is called (c) …….. . Going up the hierarchy, the next level is an (d) ……, which is formed or two or more different types of tissue. There are many organs in the human body, but five vital organs are essential to life. The next level on is an (e) …….. . Here various organs work together to carry out a (f) …… An example is the (g) …… system. Organ systems work together to keep us, an (h) ……, alive.

2. Match the characteristics with phrases 1-7. There is one extra phrase.

a. We can make deliberate choices because we can understand, learn and store information.
b. Not only are we aware of the outside world, but also of ourselves.
c. We can stand upright and walk and run on two legs.
d. Having hands that allow us manipulate tools and objects is a unique advantage.
e. Human adults care for their young for a much longer period of time than other animals.
f. The use of languages has been paramount in human development.
g. We can solve complex problems using maths and develop technology.

Phrases:

1. Longest infancy
2. Complex brains
3. Abstract thinking
4. Defy gravity
5. Oral communication
6. Opposable thumbs
7. Consciousness
8. Bipedal animals

Downloadable and photocopiable © Ediciones Bilingües, S.L.

3. Complete the sentences with the stages of the human life cycle.

a. One thing I noticed is that I'm getting shorter and weaker, and can you believe it, my ears seem to be growing! ……

b. She's adorable. She can already hold her head and crawl and can even say a few words. ……

c. Danny isn't an adult yet be he certainly looks like one. ……

d. He's doing well in the new school Although he's still having problems with reading. ……

e. Well I'm not a young adult anymore. My hair growing grey, and I've got wrinkles on my face. ……

f. It's going to be a girl. I had an ultrasound scan this morning. Everything's fine. ……

g. Oh no! I've got pimples one my face and more hair. Is this normal? ……

4. Look at the photos. What three vital functions do they represent? What does each function allow us to do? Write two sentences for each.

a.

……
……
……
……

b.

……
……
……
……

c.

……
……
……
……

Downloadable and photocopiable © Ediciones Bilingües, S.L.